Join the Troy Interfaith Group as we celebrate Thanksgiving on Sunday, Nov. 23, at Islamic Association of Greater Detroit (IAGD). The program, which begins at 7 p.m., will feature immigrants' stories from our diverse community, based on America's Table: A Thanksgiving Reader, from the AJC (www.ajc.org), as well as a special feature presentation of Interfaith Heroes.

The Troy Interfaith Group welcomes people of all faiths and communities to share in reliving experiences that remind us how our various backgrounds distinguish us and make America vibrant, while expressing our gratitude for being part of this unique story. Attendees are invited to bring a sample of their ethnic fare to share after the program.

Proceeds from the evening's offering will benefit Troy People Concerned, a referral and assistance agency for Troy residents providing food and other support, and Habitat for Humanity of SE Oakland County.
